

BELASCO REOPENS WITH KINEMACOLOR MOTION PICTURES

Tickets to Performance Will Also Admit to Roof Garden on Building.

Beginning Wednesday night of this week, the Belasco Theater reopens its doors and inaugurates an innovation in summer amusements which promises to be decidedly interesting and popular. The theater will be the local home of the famous kinemacolor motion pictures. The former presentation of the coronation and durbur pictures by the Kinemacolor process in the same theater, has made local theatergoers familiar with these wonderful reproductions of international scenes, all in nature's colors, without the aid of brush or any mechanical coloring process.

Circumstances over which he had no control making necessary previous presentations of these pictures at Broadway prices. Manager L. S. Taylor determined at the first opportunity he would popularize this latest invention of motion picture photography which has astonished the world, and at the conclusion of the stock season, he immediately grasped the opportunity of using the theater during the summer for the exhibition of kinemacolor pictures.

Two Performances Nightly.
A most generous policy has been decided upon. Two performances will be given each night at 7:30 and 9 o'clock. Absolutely new subjects of international interest will be exhibited making two continuous performances lasting about one hour and a half each.

The subjects for the first week will be "The Crusaders," an exquisite medieval scene; "Beach Scenes at Palm Beach, Fla.," a Hunt with the Exmoor Stag, and "The Festival Drill at Redham Orphanage, London." "Royal Visit to Ireland," "Lake Como, the Heart of the Italian Lakes," "Daffodils and Narcissus," a wonderful floral exhibition showing flowers in the growing; "Ostrich Farm in Los Angeles, Cal."

Matinee for Women.
A daily matinee performance will be given at 3 o'clock for women and children.

With the spacious Belasco, open on all sides, with special arrangements made for cooling and circulating the air inside, the auditorium should prove one of the coolest and most comfortable retreats in the city. To still further cater to patrons of the theater, the beautiful and lofty roof garden of the Belasco is to be thrown open to all purchasers of kinemacolor performances.

The roof garden has been handsomely decorated, chairs and tables provided for lounging and partaking of cooling refreshments, and an orchestra will render a popular musical program, far above the tree tops of the surrounding parks, and still further above the heated street level. An efficient elevator service will be in operation.

It is worthy of note that the Belasco Theater Roof Garden will be one of the best places to view the fireworks display on the night of the Fourth.

COSMOS

The feature of the Cosmos this week will be the one act comedy, "The Waiting Room," by Tom Terris. It is a beautiful romance of the South Sea Islands, the love story of Lolo, the dancing girl of Hawaii, and is splendidly cast. Mrs. Veronica Conwell has the leading role of Lolo, a part that affords her excellent opportunity for the display of her double talent, for Miss Conwell is a good singer as well as a good dancer.

George McGarry is cast as Lieutenant Kingston, U. S. N., and Charles Clark will be seen in the role of the crafty Kalluka. The scene is laid in the garden of Lolo's villa, just outside Honolulu, and is said to be very effective. The music is distinctly Hawaiian in character. Among the other acts on the bill are Jules Bernhard and Marie Scarry in a new travesty sketch, "The Saucy Comedy Four have a novel singing farce, "The Troubles of a School Teacher," George Brown, who will present an athletic oddity, "The Champion Walkers of the World," Marie Lee, the dainty little comedienne makes her debut as a vaudeville single.

Swimming and Diving Contests on Fourth

One of the most popular of the Fourth of July events in Washington will be the third annual municipal swimming and diving tournament at the bathing beach.

Fourteen events have been arranged—three for midges, five for juniors, and six for seniors. A special relay race between teams of four boys from each playground will be held, the tournament starting at 1 o'clock.

Dr. William Tindall, secretary to the Board of Commissioners, an honorary referee, Dr. F. W. Grenfell will be referee, and R. H. Gearhart starter. Prof. C. E. Beckert will officiate as clerk. The judges will be Dr. A. M. Zinkhan, N. G. Hansen, Dr. W. R. Johnson, Dr. C. L. G. Anderson, J. M. Meaney, Dr. H. W. Moffitt, and R. B. Patterson.

Concert by Glee Club.

A concert was given by the Orpheus Glee Club of Concordia Lutheran Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., in the Pythian Temple last evening under the auspices of Trinity German Lutheran Church and Christ English Lutheran Church. Miss Lillian Milovich, of this city, assisted the club.

WRONG MR. WRIGHT IS WEEK'S BILL OF COLUMBIA PLAYERS

Old, But Ever Funny; Comedy Will Be Presented by Stock Actors.

Those who delight in the farcical concoctions in the designing of which George H. Broadhurst is such an adept, will be delighted to know that the Columbia Players this week will present at the Columbia Theater one of the best of the Broadhurst comedies, "The Wrong Mr. Wright."

It is a play with action, wit, and humor permeating its entire fabric, and one that is as appealing to an audience today as it was in 1886, when Roland Reed first presented it before a Boston audience.

Matthews Back in Cast.
Tomorrow night will further be notable by reason of the fact that Godfrey Matthews returns to the cast in a character of Frederick Bond's, and that George W. Barbier, in the role of Seymour Sites, will have one of the most important parts he has assumed this season. Sites, indeed, is the star part, and will be remembered as the one Reed played during the several seasons that he presented it to the American public.

Sites, in the play, is an affluent San Francisco merchant, who is robbed by an employee. He institutes a hunt for the thief, assuming the name of Wright. The chase is taken up also by a female detective, Henrietta Oliver, and all hands meet at Old Point Comfort, where it develops that the thief has also assumed the name of Wright.

Tangle of Characters.

Julia Bonds, Sites' niece, is at Old Point Comfort, and her maid, Tilley Bird, mistaken for her, keeps up the deception, precipitating additional complications and carrying on a lively side plot. The female detective ensnares the impressionable heart of Sites, whom she takes to be the robber.

Sites, who has been notable for his penurious nature, becomes extravagantly generous, lavishing money and gifts right and left. This fact Henrietta regards as conclusive evidence of guilt. The misunderstandings are set right, and the farce ends as farces should.

Choral Evensong.

A choral evensong will be given at the Fifth Baptist Church tonight, at 7:45 o'clock. William J. Palmer will conduct the choir of forty voices, with Earl Ement as organist.

The program includes Woodward's "Radiant Morn," Stainer's "God So Loved the World," and Gounod's "Sanctus."

A number of prominent soloists will take part and a large crowd is expected.

POLI PLAYERS TO PUT ON PATTERSON NEWSPAPER PLAY

Stock Company Has Hard Work Cut Out for This Week.

The Poli Players have done some rather notable things since their advent in Washington, but this week these previous achievements are to be surpassed in the presentation of "The Fourth Estate" for the first time in Washington.

This is the great newspaper play which was a big success at Wallack's Theater, New York, last year, and which was promised for presentation during the regular season at the Belasco, but which was prevented from coming to the Capital on account of its big success in Chicago.

Now, with its original elaborate stage equipment, "The Fourth Estate" is to be revealed this week as a genuine novelty. The success of the piece both in New York and Chicago was pronounced, entitling it to a place among the first three or four popular successes of the year.

Making of Paper Staged.
The reason for its popularity are not hard to find, for the unanimous verdict of its critics proves it to be a skillfully constructed, eventful, thrilling drama, cast into interesting surroundings by writers who knew the life behind the scenes of newspaperdom.

Three of the four acts of the play take place in the office of a great metropolitan daily newspaper, the New York Advertiser. The first and third acts transpire in the office of the managing editor, the last in the composing room at the time of the making up of a history-making issue of the paper, a scene which, with its realistic representation of a full crew of operators, stereotypers, make-up men, copy-cutters, and what not, at work under high pressure, with a virile, roaring drama surging up around them, has, with no small show of reason, been called the most interesting scene staged in recent years.

Not Mere Melodrama.

That the play is not mere melodrama, however, is attested by an editorial in Collier's Weekly, that spoke of the play as the sort of thing that makes the stage worth while.

The play is the first joint work of Joseph Medill Patterson, the Chicago millionaire, socialist, and newspaper man, and Harriet Ford, a dramatist of much ability and experience.

Indiana Society Plans Picnic Next Saturday

The annual picnic of the Indiana Society will be held at Great Falls next Saturday and all Indians in the city are invited to join in the outing. The picnic given by this society is conducted in the old-fashioned way, each family taking a basket of good things to eat.

The committee on arrangements is composed of the following: Rob Roy McKahan, Willis J. Fowler, and Victor L. Carrigan. A special car will leave Georgetown at 11 o'clock for Great Falls.

"THE COMMUTERS" WILL SOON APPEAR AT POLI'S THEATER

James Forbes' Comedy Is Booked to Follow "The Fourth Estate."

James Forbes, who wrote "The Chorus Lady" and "The Traveling Salesman," is the author of "The Commuters," the comedy which will be the offering of the Poli Players for the week following "The Fourth Estate."

"Much interest attaches to 'The Commuters,' for it had its metropolitan premiere in Washington, at the National Theater, in 1910. From here it went to the Criterion Theater in New York, where it scored a hit, bringing Taylor Holmes into stellar prominence in the role of Sammy Fletcher, the bachelor.

Safe and Sane Fourth At Glen Echo Park

As the special feature for today at Glen Echo Park, there will be concerts this afternoon and tonight by the Soldiers Home Band under the direction of John S. M. Zimmerman.

July Fourth will be a gala day at the park. All arrangements are completed for the safe and sane celebration that promises to be the biggest event of the kind ever given at the resort. Of course the main event will be the fireworks, and $1,000 has been expended for the display.

A. Chastrot, an expert who formerly had charge of the famous Atlantic City displays, will have personal charge with the aid of a corps of men from the Newfield, N. J., Protoschke Company's factory of which he is proprietor. Numerous other features have been arranged and there will be no charge for admission.

Dancing on that day will start at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the big pavilion, and will be continuous until 11:30 at night. Music will be provided by an augmented orchestra.

All of the attractions, including the dip, will be running this week and two films of motion pictures will be shown free every night.

Monument to Wright.

PARIS, June 29.—A monument to Wilbur Wright, the first aviator of the world, is to be erected at Pau if plans now under way are carried out. It was Pau that Wright started the world by his sustained flights. In the meantime there is a movement on foot to change the name of some street in Paris to that of the premier aviator.

Austria to Regulate Sale of Firearms

VIENNA, June 29.—Drastic measures have been taken by the ministry of the interior to regulate the sale of small firearms throughout Austria, in view of the large number of up-to-date weapons confiscated by the police from arrested criminals in the past few months.

An official decree, just published, prohibits absolutely the sale of automatic repeating revolvers, Browning pistols, small air pistols, and similar weapons, excepting to persons holding a special permit from the local authorities.

Miss Taft a Bridemaid.

Miss Helen Taft was a bridesmaid and Robert Taft a groomsman at the wedding of their cousin, Miss Harriet Anderson, to Hugo Gilbert D. Fritsch, of New York, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles Anderson, in Cincinnati, yesterday. Miss Catherine Anderson, sister of the bride, who has been a frequent visitor at the White House the past few seasons, was also a bridesmaid.

FOR THE NECK AND SHOULDERS

A Free Prescription That Instantly
Removes Blemishes, Tan, Freckles
And All Wrinkles and Marks

The Dutch neck and the evening gown too often expose the discoloration and blemishes of high collars or the effects of tan and freckles. It is easy to overcome these conditions and make the neck beautiful and white and soft and smooth—to remove, in other words, every blemish and to make the Dutch collar as attractive as it is comfortable. This prescription can also be used on the shoulders, and it is marvellously effective to beautify the hands and arms.

If you want to try it go to your druggist, get an empty two-ounce bottle, also a one-ounce bottle of Kulus Compound. Pour the entire bottle of Kulus into the two-ounce bottle, add quarter an ounce of witch hazel, then fill with water. Prepare this at your own home and then you know what you have. One application will astonish you. It is delicately cool and soothing and does not irritate by perspiration. It will not rub off.

If you put it on one hand only, or on one side of the neck, and note the difference you will see the wonderful change it makes in the skin. The result is permanent, and continued use of this prescription will result in a skin as soft and smooth as a child's, a skin from which redness, roughness and freckles have been entirely removed.
